Circuit City Stores, Inc et al.,
Chapter 11 Case No. 08-35653
(Fifty-Sixth Omnibus Objection)

Claimant: Thomas C. Bradley

In January of 2008, I was given a cash retention award of "Phantom Stock" valued at $40,800.

I have already presented the supporting documents. In order to receive the award, I needed to still be employed by Circuit City on January 1st, 2009. I stayed with the company until they released me on March 21st 2009. I stayed on until the last day as part of the liquidation team.

In reference to who has personal knowledge of relevant facts regarding this objection. As per Exhibit D included in the objection, Eric Jonas (Senior Vice president of Human Resources) approved this award. It was also Eric Jonas as well as the Senior leadership of Circuit City whom instructed us when to file these claims. They were not filed late as suggested in the objection. The award states that a change of control, which includes liquidation, would be grounds for the liquidation to be paid in full within 75 days. It is now past 300 days. I have honored my commitment to Circuit City. I should be paid accordingly.

I do not have a declaration. As stated previously Eric Jonas as well as the Senior Leadership of Circuit City have personal knowledge of the awards as stated in Exhibit D.
